

Alan M. Gold, M.D., F.A.C.C.

Dr. Alan M. Gold joined Los Alamitos Cardiovascular in 1977, and is co-founder of the medical practice.

I lost my father to a heart attack when I was still in medical school. I know that successful prevention and treatment of heart disease requires shared caring and trust between patient and physician. Heart disease affects every aspect of a person's life. Prevention and treatment of heart disease requires physical well being, emotional well being and a healthy lifestyle. I seek a true connection with my patients to provide the teamwork necessary for optimum results...
